PROVIDING CHOICE: A CONSUMER'S PUBLICATION FOR SELECTING AN ASSISTED LIVING COMMUNITY IN KENTUCKY

Your Kentucky Assisted Living Facilities Association (KALFA) is pleased to provide you with this order form for the Providing Choice consumer publication! Assisted living communities are required under KRS 194A.715 to make available to any interested person a consumer publication approved by the Kentucky Department for Aging and Independent Living. One of the many benefits of membership in your KALFA is that your price to purchase Providing Choice is the same as the association's actual cost to print, package and ship it.

Providing Choice is an excellent publication to share with prospective assisted living clients, church groups, civic organizations, senior citizen groups, elected leaders, etc. The questions & answers, checklist, important contacts and actual text of state requirements will help readers make informed decisions about assisted living communities in Kentucky. Providing Choice can also be distributed as a self-mailer!

We will be pleased to invoice KALFA members for the number of publications ordered and the cost of packaging & shipping. All that you need to do is to complete the order form by entering your information into the gray form fields, and then simply e-mailing the form back as an attachment to kalfa@kentuckyassistedliving.org. If you prefer to complete it by hand, then please fax your form to 502-805-0589.
